NEATLY CAUGHT.

Elsworth Wyatt, one of the Dalton Gang, Captured.

He was Surprised at the Home of His Uncle in Indiana.

He was Up and Had His Ever Ready Revolver, but a Shotgun Covered Him and He Was Taken. The desperado Landed in Terre Haute Jail.

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., Dec. 2.—A few days ago the Terre Haute police located Elsworth Wyatt, the greatly wanted member of the Dalton gang of bandits of Kansas, and one of the most desperate members of it, although only 24 years old, at the house of "Squire" McGriff, his uncle, at Corey, a small town about fifteen miles south of here.

Wednesday night Sheriff Hixson, of Guthrie, Ok., arrived, and it was determined to make a descent at day-break Thursday morning. Accordingly at 1 o'clock Thursday morning a party of six officers, among them Sheriff Hixson, of this county, and the Oklahoma sheriff, surrounded the house and while three of them entered by the front door the other three went in a back way. Early as was the hour, the bandit was up and dressed, seated talking to his uncle. At the entrance of the posse he flew to his feet, and pulling out his revolver, an enormous Smith & Wesson's of the largest caliber, of a strap around his waist, tried to shoot the officers, but a shotgun in the hands of one of the posse men, who pulled him to throw up his hands and his revolver fell to his feet. He was secured and brought here and lodged in jail, awaiting arraignment to be held by Gov. Chase before his removal to the west. Intense excitement prevailed at Corey, the villagers being greatly surprised that they had such an unwelcome visitor in their midst, and it was no less abated when he was brought to Terre Haute. Wyatt's crimes are numerous. Sheriff Hixson has arrested him once before, and he says he is the most fiendish dare-devil of the whole gang, not excepting Bob Dalton himself, who made Wyatt his trusted lieutenant in their many raids.

The state of Kansas stands to pay $1,200 reward for Wyatt's capture for the murder of Constable Hailour near Greensburg, Kan., July 4 last, when the officer was trying to execute a warrant on Wyatt, who shot and killed him instantly. Wyatt escaped. He is wanted on nine different charges in Logan county, Oklahoma, of which Guthrie is the county seat. All are of a serious character, principally shooting and horse-stealing. Texas also wants him, and there is a reward of $1,000 for his capture. Wyatt was lucky enough to be in the Coffeyville bank robbery with his chief, as he was off on another criminal expedition at the time, but a few days later he headed the remnants of the gang that robbed the express car in Kansas, and it is supposed he wrote threatening communications to the Coffeyville citizens whose alarm was so good on the day the Daltons met their fate. Sheriff Hixson said Thursday night "Ever since that boy has been able to carry a pistol he has been a desperado, and he values human life as lightly as his handkerchief of early history. There will be great rejoicing all over the west at his capture."

Wyatt came to Indiana from Indian territory six or seven weeks ago. He had been in hiding out there. There was a great rush for the county jail Thursday night to see the noted prisoner.

A Fleeing Woman. CHICAGO, Dec. 2.—Mrs. Mena Berger, while cleaning her husband's saloon Thursday morning, was suddenly confronted by three masked burglars. Similar apparitions have been numerous recently, and the gritty woman, who had thought out beforehand what to do in such a case, quickly pulled a revolver and commenced shooting. One of the trio was wounded, but all escaped.

NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 2.—The Nicaragua canal convention passed resolutions that it is the paramount duty of the government to aid in the construction of the canal, and that the convention urges the congress of the United States to take such steps and give such financial aid as will insure its speedy completion. A committee was appointed to go to Washington.

THE MODEL MAIDEN.

Miss Ada Rehan Chosen for the Montana State of "Just."

New York, Dec. 2.—The question as to the identity of the model for the silver statue of "Justice," which is to be one of the great exhibits of Montana in the department of mining at the World's fair, was settled Thursday by Messrs. J. O. Harvey and F. D. Higby, of Chicago, who conceived the idea. Miss Ada Rehan is the lady. When it was stated that Miss Rehan had been selected to pose, the announcement created much feeling in the mining state. It was later believed that Miss Dora Houser, the daughter of the president of the first national bank of Helena, would be chosen as the model. The sculptor is Mr. R. H. Park, of Chicago, and the clay model is now nearly finished. The statue will represent Montana in the department of mining. It will be feet high, and its intrinsic value will be $50,000. It will be mounted on a pedestal of gold, valued at $250,000. Miss Rehan was chosen as the model. Mr. Harvey says, about sixty-eight measurements which mark the standard of perfect womanhood, sixty-two measurements to the requirements and in none of the other six did she deviate one-quarter of an inch from the standard. The actual cost of making the statue will probably be not amount to $30,000.

JAY GOULD. The Great Financier Nearing the End of a Famous Life. NEW YORK, Dec. 2.—Jay Gould, who has been living in retirement at his residence, 579 Fifth avenue, since last Sunday, was so low Thursday evening that the members of his family were summoned to his bedside. That there was grave fear of an imminent end was shown by the presence in the chamber of George Gould, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Gould, Howard Gould, Miss Helen Gould, who has been confined to her bed with a serious cold; Miss Annie Gould, the wife of D. N. Harris, who is a relative of Mr. Gould.

Dr. J. P. Munn, Mr. Gould's family physician, and Dr. E. G. Janeway, were called to his bedside. The sick room was vigorously denied to the public, but the attendant physicians and the members of the family withholding all statement as to Mr. Gould's condition.

At 11:30 Thursday morning Jay Gould was on the verge of unconsciousness. At his bedside were George Gould and his wife, Edwin Gould and his wife and all the other members of the family. Dr. Munn and Janeway are in constant attendance.

New York, Dec. 2, 1 a. m.—Jay Gould is unconscious, and it is said may die at any moment.

THE JOLIET FISHES. The Fishes Accused of Dishonesty to Their Customers. JOLIET, Ill., Dec. 2.—The condition of the collapsed Stone City bank and the Enterprise Co. looked more serious Thursday. Everything in sight had been attached. The transfer of the property of the Fishes subjects them to the charge of dishonesty. The case is to be conducted in the court. The excitement Thursday was more intense than on Wednesday. The many claims of the creditors were being met by the advertisement of the bank for long-time deposits on interest are breathing all sorts of threats. The bitter feeling grows with the idea that "Napoleon" methods were resorted to by the principal owners of the embarrassed concerns. The Illinois Steel Co. it is said, will push its claim of $150,000. The claim will be set up, according to current report, that the Fishes were trying to defraud their creditors. Additional claims were made Thursday, bringing the aggregate liabilities of both concerns to nearly $1,000,000, with probably one-third of that amount in assets.

MERIDIAN, Miss., Dec. 2.—The noted Kemper county outlaws, Tom and Walter Tolbert, for whom an exciting chase for a month has been going on, have been captured and are in Lauderdale jail. Wednesday a posse visited the house of Eliza Johnson, in Neeshoba county, twenty-six miles from here, where the Tolberts were concealed, and while searching the house Tom Tolbert jumped out of the back window and being discovered, a battle ensued. Tom was shot all over the body, receiving six or eight buckshots, but managed to make his escape.

Later, realizing his need of attention, he decided to surrender, which he and Walter did. A desperate effort was made by a hastily collected crowd to lynch the prisoners. If the pension list is large, it should be remembered that but for war against the Union there would have been no pension list worth speaking of. The Government of the United States did not enlist multitudes of soldiers and hundreds of thousands of valuable lives in order to make a long pension list. All this expense and bloodshed were incurred to subvert an attempt to destroy the Nation. They were incurred to quote the language of ABRAHAM LINCOLN—in order that "a Government of the people, for the people and by the people should not perish from the earth."

Where the Blame Belongs. The Government of the United States did not enlist multitudes of soldiers and hundreds of thousands of valuable lives in order to make a long pension list. All this expense and bloodshed were incurred to subvert an attempt to destroy the Nation. They were incurred to quote the language of ABRAHAM LINCOLN—in order that "a Government of the people, for the people and by the people should not perish from the earth."

Was the price a great one to pay for the life of the Republic? Let those who think so blame those who sold, and not those who defended and saved the life of the Republic.

The American farmer can buy an acre for 90 cents, while his Free-Trade English competitor has to pay $1 25 for the same article. What an awful tax this Tariff is!

A WESTERN paper calls the farmers who raise barley, wool and other products protected by the McKinley bill, "robber monopolists." We have heard of robber barons among the manufacturers, but now it is the farmers' turn to receive polite epithets.

The policy of the new Congress will be, doubtless, that of the old, an attack upon the Tariff in detail. Free wool, free lumber, free tin plate, free everything. Any check to our manufacturing industries and their employment of labor will but serve to awaken our people to the gravity of the situation.

A DISPATCH from Baltimore says agents of Maryland and West Virginia coal companies say that the bituminous coal industry will be ruined if the duty is removed. But, then, these fellows didn't know half as much about the Tariff and its effect on the coal business as the average cross-roads Democratic politician.

Mr. Liberty W. M. Wilkerson shot and killed Willie McCoy, the colored porter who had, over a trivial matter.
